

Anti-bullying Policy

Policy Originator: PSHE Leader

Review Period: Annually

Next Review Date: Summer 2023

Introduction

At Frimley Church of England School, we do not tolerate bullying or harassment of any kind. We believe that every child has a right to learn in a supportive, safe, and caring environment without fear of being bullied.

This policy explains our whole-school approach to preventing and dealing with bullying and should be read in conjunction with the school's Behaviour Management Policy. We acknowledge that all schools contain individuals with the potential for bullying behaviour. We understand that bullying can come and go depending on relationships and influences, therefore, we commit to reviewing this policy annually. The policy and procedures described below aim to minimise the occurrence of bullying and should give clarity to parents, pupils, and staff so that, if incidents do occur, they are dealt with quickly. School staff members have received training and relevant guidance on managing behaviour. An Anti-Bullying advice leaflet is available for children, parents and children and further information and support can be found on our web site.

Aims of the policy

To help children, parents and staff know what bullying is and how to prevent and deal with it. The policy aims to prevent or reduce incidents of bullying and provide a clearly defined framework for dealing with victims and/alongside everyone connected with bullying.

What is bullying?

Bullying is the repetitive, intentional hurting of one person by another where the relationship involves an imbalance of power and is a form of child-on-child abuse.

Bullying is behaviour by an individual or a group, repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally. Bullying can take many forms (for instance, in person /cyber-bullying via social media / text messages or the internet) and can happen to anyone. At Frimley, we strive to create a culture where prejudice and hatred is not accepted. Unacceptable behaviour includes behaviour and language which is deemed homophobic, transphobic, racist, targeted at faith, sexist and disablist amongst others (Prejudice Based Bullying and Discriminatory Bullying).

At Frimley, we have clear behaviour boundaries which are understood by all pupils. Through assemblies (Collective Worship & Technology Thursday), PSHE and circle time, the children are taught how to be respectful to others both inside and outside of the classroom. Name-calling, rumour mongering, unwanted touch and disrespect are all actions which are not tolerated in Frimley and result in sanctions as outlined within the Behaviour Management Policy. Stopping violence and ensuring immediate physical safety is obviously the school's first priority but emotional bullying can be more damaging than physical, so we feel it is of utmost importance that this is swiftly dealt with too.

Bullying involves an imbalance of power between the perpetrator and the victim. This could involve perpetrators of bullying having control over the relationship which makes it difficult for those they bully to defend themselves. The imbalance of power can manifest itself in several ways. It may be physical, psychological (knowing what upsets someone), derive from an intellectual imbalance, or by having access to the support of a group, or the capacity to socially isolate. It can result in the intimidation of a person through the threat of violence or by isolating them either physically or online.

Pupils who join in with bullying by watching, laughing or shouting encouragement are considered bullies.

Bullying is not:

- Teasing and banter between friends without intention to cause hurt
- Falling out between friends after a quarrel or disagreement
- Behaviour that all parties have consented to and enjoy
- A single act of unkind behaviour

It should not be confused with 'relational conflict' whereby two or more children get into conflict but the dispute is equally provoked and both sides have been hurtful to the other.

Bullying can take a number of forms:

- Physical: For example - Hitting, pushing, gesturing, taking or damaging personal belongings or any unwanted physical touch
- Verbal: For example - Name-calling, sarcasm, racist taunts, sexually abusive comments, comments related to physical and social disability and rumour mongering
- Psychological: For example - ignoring someone, excluding, glaring, isolating a person, graffiti, rumour spreading, sending unwanted text messages or emails, publishing hurtful material on social networking sites (cyber-bullying)

Bullying is different from the normal disagreements which sometimes occur in the playground or classroom, when children learn to deal with differences of opinion among peers. It is focussed anti-social behaviour directed intentionally at a 'victim' with malicious intent, usually over a period of time. It can happen in public – such as physical assault in the playground, or it can be very subtle and harder to detect – such as the spreading of rumours or deliberate social exclusion.

Cyber-bullying

The rapid development of, and widespread access to, technology has provided a new medium for 'virtual' bullying, which can occur in or outside of school. Cyber-bullying can happen at all times of the day with a potentially bigger audience. Staying safe online, cyberbullying and how to report concerns is taught explicitly through the Jigsaw PSHE scheme of work in addition to the weekly 'Technology Thursday' (Internet Safety & Well-Being assembly / circle time discussions and through computing lessons.

At Frimley, we take our approach to cyberbullying very seriously. I-pad and Internet use is monitored by the Deputy Head teacher through a filtering app called 'Securly', and any concerns with regards to safety is passed onto one of the Designated Safeguarding Leads. Teachers will be responsible for talking to parents about their child's/children's' internet usage should a problem arise in school. This is in line with the Home School Agreement which parents and carers sign in agreement (for both parents and pupils) to act responsibly and respectfully online.

Signs and Symptoms

Pupils being bullied may show changes in behaviour - such as:

Physical: Unexplained bruises, scratches, cuts, missing belongings, damaged clothes or schoolwork, loss of appetite, stomach aches, headaches, soiling/bedwetting.

Emotional: Losing interest in school, withdrawn, secretive, unusual shows of temper/emotions, refusal to say why unhappy, high level of anxiety, mood swings, tearfulness for no reason, lack of confidence, headaches and stomach aches, signs of depression.

Behavioural: Asking to be taken to school, coming home for lunch, taking longer to get home, asking for more money from a parent/carer, using different routes to school, 'losing' more items than usual, sudden changes in behaviour and mood, concentration difficulties, school avoidance.

Please note, these changes are indicators parents / carers may notice. Signs and symptoms vary according to age and level of independence (i.e. walking to school).

Support for victims

Pupils who have been bullied will be supported by

- Reassuring them that it is not their fault
- Support from a teacher, classroom assistant or the Inclusion Leader
- Trying to minimise the opportunities for bullying
- Ensuring that all staff are aware of the problem
- Offer continuous support (from staff and/or children)
- Learning how to 'say no' and developing assertiveness
- Restore self-esteem and confidence
- Monitor and review
- Peer support systems/buddies

We will raise the awareness of what bullying is and how to respond safely through circle time discussions, assemblies, the PSHE curriculum and through the school curriculum. These activities, along with this policy, will be reviewed annually by staff, AQC and the school council.
